The plot was cleverly worked out and the young ladies all filled their parts to perfection. The stage was prettily decorated with dainty pink cherry blossoms and chrysanthemums, and in the second cene, a Japanese garden, the green atticed fences were half hidden in cherry blossoms, and pretty Japanese lanterns furnished illumination. The Japanese drill and chorus be-tween the acts was a pleasing feature of the programme and the twelve attractive young ladies who took part vere in the flewing Japanese costu with chrysanthemums in their h and carried Japanese fans. The chorus was made up of Misses Cecile Hale Ruby Vaughn Natalie Allen, Lois Percins, Mary Johnson, Katherine Hunt Clara Worth, Dorothy Robertson, Gladys Preston, Dorothy Brown, Mar-garet Kinney and Helen Thompson.

Assessments for Sprinkling. The committee made report on as-essments for street sprinkling in the past year, which had cost in total $4,077.51, and recommended that two-thirds of this amount, or $2,718.34, be assessed on the property owners bene-fitted. The committee consisted of Mayor Murphy, Corporation Counsel Faming and City Engineer Pitcher. The report was adopted.

Report from Washington Convention Mayor Murphy made a report of his attendance as the city's delegate to the national rivers and harbors conven-tion. He spoke of the emphasis which the convention placed upon the im-provement of the Mississippi river, for which the convention recommended a $50,000,000 appropriation. Mayor Mur-

PARLOR LAMP PRESENTED

TO BOZRAH PASTOR Young People Made Gift at Social Evening with Rev. and Mrs. J. C.

Thirty young people of Bozrah gathered at the Congregational parsonage Friday evening for a social time. Games and music were enjoyed. Later in the evening the young people were invited into the dining room where sandwiches, cake and coffee were served. An interesting part of the programme was the presentation of a beautiful parlor lamp to Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Young. Mr. I. Maples pre-sented the gift in behalf of the young people and it was a complete surprise to both Rev. and Mrs. Young. They responded in a pleasing manner, com-paring the light of the lamp in the house to the light of the gospel.

BOYS FOUND MONEY,

FATHER POCKETED IT Case Taken to Court and City Wi Get One-Half of lit. Boston, Dec. 13 .- Three boys wh found several hundred dollars on th street, took their quarrel over th distribution of the money to the court today and learned for the first tim that the city statutes provide that one half of all money found on the stree goes to the city. Two of the boy complained that the father of the thir boy, Ernest Philbrick, pocketed th money before they had actually count ed it, claiming it belonged to him as his son found it. Judge Morton enjoined the elder Philbrick from spending the money and will render final decision later. In any event the boys divide but one-half the find and the city will take the rest. Dr. Newman Inaugurated. Washington, Dec. 13.-Rev. Dr. Ste phen N.
